Dance World Online Teachers Programme

Terms & Conditions

General

By submitting your application and participating in the programme you agree to comply with all terms and conditions set out in this document.

Criteria

The Teachers Programme is open to any dance schools, studios or companies who recommend Dance World to students or clients. Only the company owner or school principle may apply for the programme on behalf of the school. The teachers programme is not available to freelance dance teachers or teaching assistants. We reserve the right to approve or reject any applications.

Payments and fees

Teachers receive 5% commission on sales made through school referral on danceworld.ie. Payments will be processed once per year, in July. Payment amounts are calculated by school referrals. Commission will not be earned on postage and carriage costs. Returns will also be deducted from end of year commissions. Dance World can choose to offer cash or alternatively store credit commission. Dance World are not responsible for any incorrectly selected referrals, it is the responsibility of the customer to label accounts correctly. It is the responsibility of the participating school or company to declare earnings to revenue.

Transparency

As participants are receiving compensation for referrals it is imperative that applicants inform As participants are receiving compensation for referrals it is imperative that applicants inform clients that they are earning commission. This needs to be clearly communicated to your followers, clients, and students on your website or via email. If posting on social media hashtags such as #AF can be used to notify followers.

Modification

Dance World may, in its sole discretion, change or modify these terms and conditions at any time, with or without notice. If any modification is unacceptable to participants, its sole recourse shall be to terminate the agreement. The applicants continued participation in the programme will constitute binding acceptance of such modifications.

Dance World reserves the right to terminate the applicants participation in the Teachers Programme if Dance World determines, in its sole discretion, that the applicants actions or its participation in the programme is in violation of any laws, rules, regulations, or any requirements of governmental authority.

Termination

The applicant may terminate participation in the programme with immediate effect by giving Dance World written notice of termination. Upon termination, the participant will forfeit all potential or unpaid fees. Their page and referral option will be removed from the website. Dance World reserves the right to terminate the participation in the Teachers Programme at any time for conduct that is in breach of terms and conditions or for conduct that Dance World, in its sole discretion, deems to be harmful to its business or any third party.